

TCEA Library Media Specialist of the Year

Name of Applicant: _____

Category	0	1	2	3	Total
Instructional Leadership that Promotes the Effective Use of Technology Throughout the Campus/District	No evidence	Technology tools add little or no educational value to the learning activities.	Technology tools are used as a supplement to the basic instruction. Technology is used for enrichment or extension of activities and administrative purposes.	Technology tools are used seamlessly. Effectively communicates with all library patrons the usefulness of technology through demonstrations. Daily usage, professional development, student learning and lesson planning.
Special Library Programs and Projects	No evidence	Special programs and projects are limited to district mandated initiatives.	Library mission is limited in scope and sequence. Special projects and programs are prompted by teacher or student inquiry.	Actively advocates for library use and patron involvement in the scope of the library mission through the introduction of various library programs that meet the needs of teachers, administrators and students.
Provides Quality Professional Development to Enhance Classroom Instruction	No evidence	Professional development is limited to basic library use.	Professional development promotes the use of technology for administrative functions and basic research strategies.	Professional development promotes the use of various research models for problem solving and information literacy through activities, technology use and programs.
Overall Impression of Candidate	Does not meet expectations	Meets expectations	Exceeds expectations in some areas	Exceeds expectation in all areas	